We invite papers on all areas of speculative culture, including print, film, television, comic books and video games, and we particularly encourage papers which consider popular texts within their larger cultural context. We welcome papers from a wide variety of critical approaches including but not limited to literary criticism, utopian studies, genre criticism, feminist theory, critical race studies, queer theory, and postcolonial theory.

Extrapolation promotes innovative work which considers the place of speculative texts in contemporary culture. We are interested in promoting dialogue among scholars working within a number of traditions and in encouraging the serious study of popular culture.

We welcome submissions on all areas of science fiction and fantasy, and are particularly interested in the following areas of study:

- ◆ Racial constructions in speculative genres
- ◆ Children's and YA sf and fantasy
- ◆ Sexualities
- ◆ Fantastic motifs in mainstream texts
